

Hello I am,

Miguel Jeronimo

I'm just a young designer starting out in the AMAZING world of graphic design. Being a first-generation college graduate, I am taking my family tree to new heights, and it is scary. However, my dedication and the passion I have for design are making every risk worth taking. I love learning, creating, and seeing how my craft and skill are slowly turning into a career. I aspire to grow as designer and hope to make a difference for my brown community. I want express my Latino culture through my work.

WORK EXPERIENCE

P.S ARTS Media and Design Intern (2021-present)

Work across the organization's departments to help support marketing and communication efforts. Help assist the Associate Director, Communications with conceptualizing and producing print and digital campaigns, draft social media and blog content, assist in the layout and design of collateral, and help manage photo database and other marketing assets.

UpWork Inc. (2018-present)

Work on small commissions for various clients that need a designer to make a logo, an illustration, or poster designs. By working alongside the client, I make sure the client receives a project proposal, project aspects, drafts, and at the end, final high-quality deliverables.

Casa Robles Taqueria (2020)

Reached out to created t-shirt designs for Casa Robles for their new merch line. Through multiple online video calls, proposals, sketches, and revisions, Casa Robles was happy to see her merch vision come to life. Since then, Casa Robles has become an ongoing client.
